

Part Time Seasonal Farm Hand

This is a summer-only position, ideal for a student, teacher, or anyone looking to spend the season working outdoors and learning the ins and outs of small-scale farming.

We're a small, diversified farm looking for one dependable, hardworking team member to join us for the summer. You'll work alongside us in both the field and greenhouse, gaining hands-on experience in vegetable production from planting through harvest. If you enjoy physical work, being outside, and learning by doing, this is a great opportunity to build real skills in farming.

Schedule Details

We can offer flexible start and end dates to accommodate school schedules.

June - End of August: 16 hours per week- 2 days per week

Responsibilities include:

- Assist farmers- with daily chores as necessary. Collect eggs and provide food and water to chickens as directed.
- Greenhouse- assist with daily watering as directed. Open and close greenhouses daily, depending on weather as applicable to your schedule.
- Field work - participate in all aspects of field work from bed prep and transplanting to weeding and bed maintenance. Follow instructions for proper plant spacing, bed prep techniques, plant variety identification, and appropriate time management as outlined in training.
